

March 12, 2026: On How Can I Support This Death Cult

Is this real news? I have no reason to believe that this is not true.

The very same people that are waging war in Iran, after having already materially assisted Israel in finishing off Palestine, are wearing 'Grim Reaper' patches ON THEIR UNIFORMS?!

THIS MUST BE FAKE NEWS! OTHERWISE, WE ARE IN A LOT WORSE POSITION THAN YOU ALL HAVE DISCOVERED SO FAR! (Quite honestly, I already concluded that we are a country run by the literal Nazi party in a military coup de tat several years ago now)

Why are Alligator Alcatraz guards wearing a Grim Reaper patch?

A former Alligator Alcatraz detainee says this patch was 'meant to make us even more afraid than we already were. I always felt haunted by it, but I never said anything because I was so afraid.' Monique O. Madan Special to the Miami Herald

My brain is too well formed and properly functioning to support 'Murica under these current conditions.

It would literally be an act of cognitive dissonance and self-deception to believe in this country as an upright, moral, and just cause.

Shining beacon of light on the hill? That's just my house.
